

July 21, 2021 – General and Skilled Labourers

We are currently recruiting General and Skilled Labourers to join our growing team in British Columbia. This position offers a rewarding opportunity to work on key projects and build your career with a fast-growing company and a close-knit team that supports your personal and professional development.

Candidates must demonstrate a history of experience carrying out manual labour working on various jobsites, with preference to civil pipe installation and on active mining sites with limited supervision and direction.

General Duties & Responsibilities:

- Perform work to your greatest ability and of the highest quality
- Ability to assist with HDPE pipe assembling, bolting, moving and maintaining
- Accurately complete all work reports and maintenance logs as required
- Communicate with co-workers
- Regularly perform Safety inspection of equipment and tools
- Oblige to Health and Safety Procedures and Processes
- Follow equipment maintenance schedule and advise if repair is required
- Perform other related tasks as needed

Requirements:

- A valid driver's license and a clean driving record
- Previous experience in a mine setting preferred
- Previous Pipe laying experience an asset
- Experience operating hand tools, powered hand tools and ancillary equipment such as Plate Packers and Jumping Jacks
- Willingness to learn to operate smaller heavy-duty equipment
- Attention to detail
- Ability to work in a fast-paced environment
- Ability to pass Drug and Alcohol pre-screen

What we offer you:

- Competitive Wage
- Long-term employment for qualified individuals

Location: Williams Lake and Cariboo Region, British Columbia

We are one of Western Canada's largest and most respected earthworks and infrastructure contractors with over 55 years experience in earthworks, road construction, underground and surface works, delivering projects of all sizes for clients in a variety of industries. Our team of experienced professionals, combined with our fleet of over 100 pieces of heavy-duty equipment, gives us the unique in-house capacity to meet all our customer needs for residential, commercial, and large industrial applications alike.

If you are interested in joining a dynamic team, have an entrepreneurial attitude and desire unlimited potential for growth and success please submit your resume. jobs@lakeexcavating.com

Thank you for your interest in Lake Excavating Ltd.